- PACT (Parents and adolescents communicating together)

Organising Exploring Together Workshops in your area:

If you are interested in having us come to you to conduct training in any of the Exploring Together programs:

- Discuss the program with colleagues and other professionals in your area (schools and community agencies often work together to conduct these programs)
- Contact the Exploring Together office if you would like any further information to distribute to colleagues and other professionals about the programs and training
- A minimum of 8 people (maximum 30) is required to conduct training
- Training is available throughout Australia
- Program manuals consist of detailed information to conduct each session of the program
